

Conditional land use permit for Non-Shareholder Residents

Please read: Non-Shareholder Residents of the villages of Galena, Koyukuk, Nulato and Kaltag, Alaska who have established a ninety (90) day residency and are able to demonstrate an intent to remain in the community for at least one (1) year may apply for this permit. This application is for a permit to enter certain Gana-A'Yoo, Limited (Gana-A'Yoo) corporation lands for limited purposes. This permit is not a hunting or fishing license - you must obtain these from proper authorities. Permission to enter and use the permit area is conditional upon your compliance with all rules and restrictions, including the General Terms and Conditions on the reverse side, and may be revoked if you fail to comply. You must at all times have this permit in your possession while on Gana-A'Yoo, Limited permit area lands. You must also have photo identification on your person and present it upon request.

General Terms and Conditions for Access and Use of Gana-A'Yoo Lands

All access, use, and permits are subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Those persons with access to or permission to use Gana-A'Yoo Lands shall:
 - a. Keep Gana-A'Yoo Lands in a neat and orderly condition during any period of use. All trash must be picked up and removed;
 - b. Acknowledge that the access to or use of Gana-A'Yoo Lands does not give rise to any rights or interest in the lands to the user;
 - c. Obtain the proper land use permit from the Corporation, as applicable;
 - d. Avoid trespass onto other private properties adjacent to the Gana-A'Yoo Lands, and treat the owners and their property with respect;
 - e. Carry identification and any applicable permit at all times while on Gana-A'Yoo Lands and present upon request;
 - f. Inquire about any relevant restrictions specific to the area of use identified in the permit application;
 - g. Take all precautions necessary to prevent wild fires;
 - h. Not feed any wild animals;
 - i. Assume all risks of personal injury or property damage while on Gana-A'Yoo Lands;
 - j. Indemnify and hold Gana-A'Yoo harmless from any and all liabilities arising in any way from the actions or inactions of the permit holder or his/her companions on Gana-A'Yoo Lands; and
 - k. Comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, including but not limited to permits, licenses, and tags.
2. Non-Shareholder Residents of the villages of Galena, Koyukuk, Nulato and Kaltag, Alaska, must have established a ninety (90) day residency and be able to demonstrate an intent to remain in the community for at least one (1) year, as discussed herein.
3. The use of Gana-A'Yoo Lands shall be only by the permit holder, except in cases of hardship where the Corporation, upon request from the permit holder, may allow other parties to assist the permit holder to engage in the permitted activities. The permit does not extend to friends, family and visitors.
4. All minors, persons under the age of eighteen (18), must be accompanied by an adult and, where applicable, both adult and minor must carry a use permit.
5. A grant of access or permit (regardless of type) to access or utilize Gana-A'Yoo Lands does not grant any interest in Gana-A'Yoo Lands or any special rights or equities.
6. Vehicles that cause damage to the land are not allowed unless the use is on an established trail. The definition for established trails is described as those trails traditionally used by Shareholders and local community members. They include trails regularly used to travel to berry picking or fish camp sites and cemeteries. Such established trails include, but are not limited to: the trail to Bald Hill in Nulato; the trail to the cemetery in Kaltag; or the portage trail to Bessie's Slough upriver from Galena. For example, a small tractor or ATV cannot be used on a walking trail, but can be used on an old cat trail.
7. Permission to access and use Gana-A'Yoo Lands is conditional upon compliance and may be revoked at any time for failure to comply. Violations of Gana-A'Yoo Land Management Policies may result in denial of future access and use permit applications.

Specific Conditions

1. Users are expected to abide by all federal and state hunting and fishing laws, including those regarding subsistence. The State of Alaska and the federal government regulate the actual harvest of fish and game on all lands in Alaska, including Gana-A'Yoo Lands.
2. Gana-A'Yoo does not settle trap line disputes.
3. Users must show proof of use of structures, if any, on adjacent lands (i.e., native allotments, etc.) by a memorandum of agreement or other signed agreement.
4. No hunting or shooting within one (1) mile of any known camp, cabin, or active timber harvest area.
5. All game must be cleaned in the field and stored in a way to minimize any potential problems (i.e. bears).
